

The Honorable Benjamin H. Settle

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT TACOMA

ROQUE "ROCKY" DE LA FUENTE,

Plaintiff,

v.

KIM WYMAN, in her official capacity as the Secretary of State of the State of Washington

Defendant.

Case No. 3:16-cv-058011-BHS

SECOND DECLARATION OF LORI AUGINO IN SUPPORT OF DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

I, Lori Augino, declare as follows:

1. I am over eighteen years of age and competent to testify. The information stated below is true and correct and based on my own knowledge.

2. I currently serve as the Director of Elections in the Office of the Secretary of State of Washington. My job entails ensuring Washington's elections are conducted in a transparent, accurate, consistent, and secure manner. This includes, among other duties, assisting county auditors conduct elections, working on election-related policy for the Secretary of State, processing candidate filings, certifying certain candidates for the ballot, and certifying elections.

I have held this position for 4 years.

1 3. A representative of Mr. De La Fuente requested that the Secretary of State's Office
2 reconsider the decision to reject his certificate of nomination. Exhibit 1 is a true and correct
3 copy of the letter that I sent in response on August 11, 2016, declining to reconsider. In the letter,
4 I informed Mr. De La Fuente of his appeal rights under Wash. Rev. Code § 29A.56.670 and
5 informed him that he still had time to file as a write-in candidate.

7 4. Mr. De La Fuente timely submitted a declaration of write-in candidacy. Exhibit 2 is a
8 true and correct copy of Washington's Official List of Presidential Write-In Candidates for the 9 2016 General Election. Mr. De La Fuente's name appears on page 4 as a candidate for the 10 American Delta Party.

11 5. For the 2016 presidential election, five minor party candidates were able to meet all of 12 Washington's statutory requirements, including the requirement that there be notice of the minor
13 party convention. All five of those candidates appeared on the general election ballot. Exhibit 3
14 are true and correct copies of the Green Party's proof of publication for several conventions held
15 in several counties in Washington in 2016.

17 6. In 2012, six minor party candidates were able to meet all of Washington's statutory 18 requirements and appeared as presidential candidates on the general election ballot. In 2008, five
19 minor party candidates and one independent candidate were able to meet all of Washington's
20 statutory requirements and appeared as presidential candidates on the general election ballot.

22 7. The State has an important interest in requiring independent candidates and minor parties
23 to give ten-days' notice of their nominating conventions in a newspaper of general circulation in 24 the county where the convention is held. For minor party and independent candidates,

1 nominating conventions often provide the first opportunity for voters to come together to learn
2 about a party or a candidate and their platform.

3 8. Conventions also must select the slate of presidential electors for the party or independent
4 candidate. If a Washington citizen wants to learn about a minor party or independent candidate's
5 platform or be elected to serve as an elector for the party or independent candidate, he or she
6 must to know when and where the relevant convention will occur.

7 9. Notice in a newspaper of general circulation has been the method of notice for minor
8 party and independent candidate conventions for decades. Notice in a newspaper of general
9 circulation is also required for state and local elections. It is reasonable to conclude that given
10 these longstanding requirements, newspaper publication is the means through which citizens
11 expect to be notified electoral events, including notice of minor party and independent candidate
12 conventions.

13 10. To the Secretary of State's Office's knowledge, no minor party or independent 14 presidential candidate seeking placement on Washington's ballot has ever failed to meet the 15 notice requirement found in Wash. Rev. Code § 29A.56.620, except the American Delta Party
16 on behalf of Mr. De La Fuente.

17 I swear under penalty of perjury under the laws of the state of Washington that the 18 foregoing is true and correct and of my own knowledge, and that I executed this declaration at 19 Olympia, Washington, on October 3, 2017.

Re: Determination of Insufficiency

Mr. Rossi:

Thank you for your letter regarding the Washington Secretary of State's Office's rejection of the American Delta Party's Certificate of Nomination for insufficiency. We respectfully disagree with your characterization of minor party convention requirements in Washington. RCW 29A.56.600, .610. We also do not believe that RCW 29A.56.620 and .640 impose an unconstitutional burden on minor parties.

As you know, RCW 29A.56.620 sets forth the specific notice requirements for minor party conventions. RCW 29A.56.640 requires that a certificate evidencing nominations made at a convention "must . . . (6) Contain proof of publication of the notice of calling the convention," among other things. Emphasis added. And RCW 29A.56.670 requires the Secretary of State to determine whether the requirements of RCW 29A.56.640 have been met. Absent a court order, the Secretary of State does not have discretion to waive any of the statutory requirements for a valid certificate of nomination. Accordingly, the Secretary of State's Office complied with these statutes and properly rejected the American Delta Party's certificate of nomination.

Any appeal of the rejection must be filed in Washington with the Thurston County Superior Court within five days from the date the determination is made. RCW 29A.56.670. As an alternative, Mr. De La Fuente and his vice presidential candidate may want to consider filing declarations of write-in candidacy. Write-in candidate filings are made available to the public, but write-in candidates do not appear on the general election ballot or in any official voters' pamphlet. Many candidates for president and vice president have exercised this option. Declarations of write-in candidacy must be received no later than October 20, 2016. <http://www.sos.wa.gov/assets/elections/Presidential%20Write-in%20form.pdf>

Sincerely,

Official List of Presidential Write-In Candidates for the 2016 General Election

The following persons have declared as write-in candidates for U.S. President or the combined offices of President and Vice President of the United States of America. Write-in candidate names will not be printed on the ballot or appear in the Voters' Pamphlet. Voters wishing to cast a vote for any of the following candidates must write in the name of the candidate on the ballot. Votes for an individual write-in candidate are tallied by name only if the total number of write-in votes cast exceeds the total votes cast for the apparent top vote getter appearing on the ballot.
